

CHINA PLATFORM

Taiwan Lecture Café Series 2021

Wednesday 3 November

Yeh Kuo-Chun (National Taiwan University)

“Did China’s soft power seduction lure Taiwan’s youth?
Preliminary evidence for employment and entrepreneurship”

Wednesday 10 November

Lee Yu-Ting (National Taiwan University)

“Problems of East Asian Historical Narrative: Compared with Europe”

Wednesday 17 November

Hwang Yih-Jye (Leiden University College The Hague)

“The Origin and Development of International Studies in Taiwan”

Wednesday 24 November

Chen Yi-Ling (University of Wyoming)

“Governed by the Market: The Rise of Social Housing Movement and its Obstacles in Taiwan”

Tuesday 30 November*

Hsiung Ping-Chen (University of California)

“Further Reflections on the Migrating Taste: Development of Taiwanese Food Culture in the Postwar Era”

Wednesday 1 December

Liao Hsien-Hao (National Taiwan University)

“Taiwan at the crossroads:
Between Central Kingdom and Seafaring Pirates”

中国
平台

Time 11:30-13:00 (CET)

*10:00-11:30 (CET)

Online registration: <https://eventmanager.ugent.be/TaiwanLC>

This Taiwan Lecture Series 2021 is organized in the framework of the Taiwan Studies Programme in cooperation with the University of Groningen, Georg-August Universität Göttingen and the Ministry of Education, Taiwan.

