STATE OF THE ART

ONLINE COURSE

DESIGNING AND BUILDING A CRITICAL STATE OF THE ART FOR RESEARCH

ENLIGHT DOCTORAL NETWORK

The foundation of all good research is a well designed, well built, and well maintained Critical State of the Art (SoA). How good the Critical State of the Art is will determine the quality of the research, and thus how successful and worthwhile the doctoral research will be.

The course is composed of three-hour classes run over three weeks. All classes will work as seminars, and include both presented material and open discussion. The course is equivalent to 25 hours or 1 ECTS credit.18 doctoral students will participate per group (2 per university).

For registration, please contact the ENLIGHT coordinator of your university.

This course has the financial support of Euskampus Fundazioa.
